4. Work Through Agenda
   a. Organizational Exchange & Announcements:
      Monica Updike – DMHA – announced they have a new member, Andrea Cheeseman, family service coordinator. The department Monica works in changed names, it is now called Housing Choice Voucher. DMHA continues to purchase houses and have broadened the housing choices into Huber Heights and Vandalia.

      Chris VanDenburg – Kettering Health Network Health Ministry – reported Moraine Farm was purchased by Kettering Health Network Health Ministry.
Marilyn Rodney – Sinclair Community College – announced the tuition will increase at Sinclair and they will make the transition to semesters in 2012. Nursing students and faculty participated in the first international service trip to San Lucas Toliman, Guatemala. She will be attending the service learning conference at Cedarville University. Marilyn brought two Unsung Hero applications, if anyone wanted for the Unsung Hero award.

Sharon Becker – Good Samaritan Health Ministries – stated they are now in their new offices located at 23 Jasper Street after the move in mid-November. On March 25, 2011, “Grant Seeking and Resources for Success” workshop will take place at Madison Lake Learning and Conference Center. Starting on February 1, applications will be accepted for the AED grant for faith communities.

Jennifer Boyd – Public Health Dayton and Montgomery County – announced Public Health received a grant for the diabetes program which is held at the Drew Health Center. The program is one day a week for two hours and offered in four week sessions. It follows the ADA guidelines. The course is free but participants have to be referred by their physicians. Classes are offered about nutrition and participants do not need to be referred by physicians. If you would like more information about courses, contact Jennifer Boyd at 225-5878. Jennifer passed out a flyer regarding A Teen Day Celebration Remembering a Legend Dr. Martin Luther King, Jr. The event is on January 17, 2011, 12:00-3:00 PM at the Neon Movies on Fifth Street in Dayton. The movie that will be shown is Sarafina!

Mary Ann Drewry – WSU-SOPP Ellis Institute – the school is preparing for the reaccreditation from the state and the Ellis Institute will be applying for reaccreditation for CAR. Interviews are being held to hire five interns for the next school year. The interns go out to South Community, Upper Valley, Summit, and Children’s Medical Center. Mary Ann provided the committee with contact information for Universal HealthCare Action Network of Ohio (614) 456.0060 for us to contact about speaking about dental care.

Patty Griswold – East Dayton Health Center – announced Victor J Cassano Health Center will be part of Community Health Centers of Greater Dayton in March. Not all of Cassano’s will be under them, just primary care.

Chris Olinsky – OSU Extension – invited everyone to attend the Parenting Education Dialogue Circle on February 16, 2011 at 9am; Dr. Gary LeRoy will be talking about federally qualified health care. OSU Extension has a grant with the OSU pharmacy. It is the OSU Cares grant and is focused on prescription drug abuse. There is not a targeted age group. Currently, there are lessons and resource tools OSU Extension has to try to get the work out in the community. One of the ways is to post a flyer in area pharmacies or grocery stores. Prescription drug abuse is common among middle school aged children, teens and senior citizens. Chris announced there is a free dental clinic being set up at the Nutter Center. This event is called Keep Kids Smiling and is held January 31-
February 4. The Children’s Medical Center has a program called The Body Shop to help children with weight issues. For more information contact Jessica Saunders at Children’s Medical Center.

Gary LeRoy – East Dayton Health Center – spoke about the number of deaths in Montgomery County from prescription drugs. If anyone is interested in being on the coalition contact Gray LeRoy.

Roberta Taylor – Premier Community Health – also moved to 23 Jasper Street. Since moving, there have been 2 nursing student who have been working at Premier Community Health. The Community Screening will be coming up and once it is confirmed Roberta will pass along the information.

b. Center for Healthy Communities Report:
Kate reported being involved with Sinclair Community College to help provide free tuition for up to 200 people during the next 18 months. They will complete a ten week training for health information technology. Another project the Center is involved with is conversion to electronic medical records. The goal is to get a number of people trained on electronic medical records, contact Denise Moore at Sinclair Community College about enrollment. The HealthLink seminars will continue in 2011. Funding for Kinship Navigators and Community Health Advocates was renewed.

Dionne announced the 10th Annual African American Wellness Walk is being chaired by Frankye Herald. The walk will be on June 4, 2011 at RiverScape MetroPark.

Kim C. reported the next HealthLink Seminar is March 15, 2011 on “Many Faces of Dementia”. The speakers for the seminar are Larry Lawhorne, Eric VanVylmen, and Brenda Currie. The HealthLink Outreach Taskforce Planning Committee is working with Samaritan Behavior Health to put together a seminar on violence prevention. The Medicaid Outreach Consortium is working on having a provider seminar and one for community members regarding Medicaid eligibility and applications. The Consortium reconvened in October 2010 with monthly meetings.
