c. Center for Healthy Communities Report:
   Dionne Simmons reported the Kinship Program brochures have been updated. If your agency would like more please contact Cindy. The 7th Annual Kinship Family Fair was held on Saturday, August 23 from 8:30-12:30 at the Cunningham Family Life Center part of Mt. Enon Church. There were about 100 families and 150 children in attendance. Shoes4theshoeless provided all the children with a brand new pair of shoes and socks. The children also received a backpack and school supplies.

   Kim Conner reported that community health volunteers have completed 13 events and served over 500 people during these events. There is another event coming up on September 25 at Life Enrichment Center. Tuesday, September 9 was the HealthLink seminar on Alzheimer’s disease. The next seminar is December 9, “Social Security Disability Process: Updates and Essentials for Health and Social Service Professionals.” On August 1, the Medicaid Outreach Consortium held a training at the Job Center. About 70 individuals attended and were educated about the ACA Marketplace. The consortium is hosting bimonthly community forums on Mondays at the Job Center; the next one is Monday, September 15 with time slots at 9am, 11am, 4pm and 7pm. The October forums are October 1 and 20. The last community forum will be November 5, with open enrollment starting November 15, 2014 and ending February 15, 2015. Kim announced the Center received a grant from the MEDTAPP Health Care Access Initiative. The statewide grant focuses on community health worker certificate training. As part of the grant, seven colleges in the state of Ohio will offer this training. The goal is to get 20 students to complete the training by June 2015. There is $2,000 in tuition assistance available. Additionally, the grant supports four community health worker positions in Dayton, Cincinnati, Mansfield and Cleveland.
