Are you interested in Community Health, Community Resources or Health Professions?

ALH 1150 Healthcare Navigator Clinical

Students will enroll in class through Sinclair Community College.

Sinclair Off-Campus Site

Wright State University

907 West Fifth Street

For more information

Kimberly Conner
(937) 775-8254
kimberly.conner@wright.edu

Healthcare Navigators are part of the Healthcare team assisting people to access resources outside of primary and tertiary care facilities which contribute to treatment compliance and improving overall health. Healthcare Navigators are knowledgeable about community resources, communication and interviewing skills, public and private sector health care financing. This certificate program will both prepare students to work as healthcare navigators and enhance the knowledge and skills required for other allied health care professions.