8:30am -12:15pm

Madison Lakes Park Lodge
581 Olive Road
Dayton, Ohio
(Free parking)

Registration and Refreshments at 8:00 am

- How can I prepare for a disaster?
- What can I do to help my client adapt and cope during a disaster?
- What available resources can be used during a disaster?

Objectives

1. List access to available resources for community care providers.
2. Identify supplies needed for personal and professional emergency preparedness.
3. Discuss available resources to assist clients with disaster recovery.
4. Identify client needs and how to overcome barriers to care during a disaster.

This seminar will provide information for health and social service providers about preparing community members for a disaster. Community care professionals will use this information to assist them in personal and professional emergency preparedness during a disaster. The specific focus will be on local community resources available for service providers to help clients adapt and cope when disaster strikes.
