Registration, Refreshments, and Resources at 8:00 am

- What are disability rights laws and the Fair Housing Act?
- Who is covered?
- Are there resources and solutions for compliance issues?

Objectives:
- Explain key laws addressing disability rights including the Fair Housing Act, the Americans with Disability Act, and Section 504 of the Rehabilitation Act.
- Identify individuals covered under disability rights laws.
- Consider compliance issues for landlords, housing associations and other management entities.
- List resources available to aid in compliance.

This program will provide an overview of the major disability rights laws and their relationships to the Fair Housing Act. Participants will discuss critical information regarding application of reasonable accommodations and modifications, statutory and regulatory rights of people with disabilities.
