Statement from the Chair

The OB/Gyn department continues to grow and thrive despite ongoing recruitment concerns and unprecedented political turbulence profoundly affecting patient care. Also challenging was sustained drop in the region's birth rates adversely impacting department finances; we significantly mitigated this through development of new partnerships, renegotiated contracts.

Since our residency program became fully ACGME accredited 2 years ago, our program leadership team, led by Dr. Geoffrey Towers, honed an environment promoting ACGME compliance, wellness, and academic rigor. Our graduates represent us well; they are highly recruited and leave us prepared to practice and operate on day one. We recruit, arguably, the most qualified and diverse classes in the history of the residency program.

Our faculty practice, Wright State Physicians Obstetrics and Gynecology, provides some of the highest quality clinical care in the community. Our practice has the most experienced staff in the corporation with lowest turnover and highest patient satisfaction scores. We are actively recruiting two generalists and a Urogyn physician to replace Dr. Tam who has unfortunately decided to relocate to California to be nearer to family. We are strengthening the partnership with Premier Health and their new leadership to improve alignment between our practice and the health system where we practice almost exclusively.

The clerkship continues to flourish under the leadership of Dr. Sheela Barhan who graciously agreed to resume the Clerkship Director role after Dr. Marilyn Kindig stepped down in May to work part-time so she could better support the needs of several members of her family. Dr. Barhan has significant experience in this role which allows us to serve the department and students well. We have involved several students in research projects and have electives to develop research and teaching skills prior to residency. We matched 9 student applicants in OB/GYN residencies. At the time of this writing, 10 students plan to apply to OB/GYN residencies this fall!

We are fostering and growing our relationship with Dayton Children's Hospital (DCH). Our WSP Medical Director, Dr. Josette D'Amato, continues to provide care at their Adolescent/Young Adult (AYA) Clinic and due to community needs, I began seeing patients there this past academic year too. We host pediatric and family medicine residents who rotate with us and hope to create opportunities for our OB/GYN residents and medical students to rotate as well. We are working with the DCH Psychiatry Department, to partner to allow pregnant adolescents admission to the inpatient child psychiatry unit.

Our department remains an important resource to BSoM and the community in the Diversity/Equity/Inclusion space. Dr. Keith Reisinger-Kindle is an active anti-racism researcher involving residents and students in multiple projects, several submitted for publication. He provides BSoM faculty and staff Anti-racism Dialogue Training and leads work reducing disparities in our community.

Dr. Rose Maxwell, Department Research Director, helped me to establish enhanced research and scholarly activity goals. Under her leadership, we are meeting goals for submitted publications, initiating new studies and completing projects. She has been instrumental in setting the foundation for the GRC/MedTapp QI Hub grant which began in Oct 2022 (PI: Dr. Dhanraj) and the Genentech Innovation in STEM Intergroup Dialogue in Medicine grant (PI: Dr. Erica Taylor / Sub-I: Dr. Reisinger-Kindle) which began in Jan 2023. Her team managed several industry trials acquiring much-needed department revenue. She ensures our partnership with Dr. Thomas Brown runs smoothly as we collaborate to advance the study of preeclampsia at BSoM.

Our relationship with WPAFB remains strong providing us subspecialists otherwise difficult to recruit and support at our school and community. Since the base is also having difficulty staffing their labor & delivery unit, their generalists (and a few sub-specialists) are coming to Miami Valley to treat their patients, maintain their skills and assist us at the same time. This summer we are welcoming new base faculty dedicated to both clinical training and formal didactics for our learners. We were given notice earlier in the year that the USAF was considering removing residency training spots around the country and we were under consideration for losing a supported position. We were recently informed that we would retain all three military spots for the upcoming recruitment class. We have, however, opened discussions with Premier Health about supporting a fourth civilian residency slot if the military were to remove a position. It is critical for both operational and educational reasons for us to maintain our complement of six residents per year and therefore we will continue to vociferously advocate for this to both civilian and military leadership in the upcoming year.

The political climate changed abruptly with the Supreme Court's Dobbs decision leaving both patient care and medical education uncertainties. We are offering ACGME mandated family planning training, requiring more resourcefulness. We advocate for our patients and learners and provide the best care we can under the circumstances although this is complicated and difficult at times. Members of the BSoM OB/GYN department are committed to being the best educators, clinicians, innovators, and advocates for patients and students regardless of the challenges we face.
