Jennifer Boyd – PHDMC – announced she is working on wrapping up the national diabetes program at Five Rivers Health Center.

Daria Dillard Stone – Dayton Public Schools – announced now is the time for parents to request a school transfer within the school district. If there is an opening in the requested school, the student will start at the new school after the winter break. Daria said a number of organizations have been donating fruit and water for parents to have while they are enrolling their child/ren in school as the process can take 2 hours or longer. There have been a number of parents withdrawing their children out of DPS and enrolling them in other school districts. The reasons include concerns about their child’s safety or the child is being bullied. DPS had about 175 teachers resign before the start of the 2015-2016 school year and many of these positions have not been filled. Daria would like to set up a meeting about how organizations can help DPS be more involved in the community. Daria distributed the DPS Priority Board Notes from January 2016.

Crystal Schultz – Montgomery County Department of Job & Family Services – mentioned the spend down will be going away as well as an increase on the income limit for individuals on Medicaid ABD. The changes are supposed to take effective July 1.
