2. Approval of Minutes
   Motion passed unanimously to accept the minutes from the January 14, 2015 meeting with the correct spelling of Crystal Schultz’s name.

3. Work Through Agenda
   Kimberley Freeman, Public Health Dayton and Montgomery County, was the invited speaker at the meeting. Kimberley spoke about the Preventing Obesity, Diabetes, and Heart Disease and Stroke in Ohio Communities grant. The grant officially started on February 1, 2015 and is a 4 year grant. Montgomery County received the maximum amount of $400,000 for this grant. Healthy living/eating and support health systems are the two major components.

   Mary Jane Kocian-Figueroa, WSU SOPP, explained that the Duke E. Ellis Human Development Institute (Ellis) is designed to be training clinic for the School of Professional Psychology and is located on the corner of Edwin C. Moses and Third Street. Staff includes licensed psychologists, interns, postdocs and supervised Psy.D. students in their second, third or fourth years. Ellis is able to serve children starting at the age of 2 through adults and accepts Medicaid. They do not accept commercial insurance; they ask clients to pay their copay amount. Most sessions don’t cost more than $10. They offer families and individual therapy sessions and have open appointments. Patients can get an appointment within a day or two of calling. The only service that has a wait list is the psychological testing for children. Patients do not need referral to be seen at Ellis. Their hours are 8am-8pm Monday-Thursday and 8am-4:30pm on Friday. Mary Jane is going to put together a one sheet flyer listing all the services they provide to send out to the committee. They are planning to host a health fair in May in the parking lot of Ellis, more information to follow.

a. Organizational Exchange & Announcements:
