Statement from the Chair/Associate Dean

For the Department of Internal Medicine and Neurology, 2020-21 was a challenging and exceptional year. Despite the COVID-19 pandemic and its effect on all aspects of life, we have continued to excel at our three key missions – teaching, patient care, and scholarly activity.

To deal with ongoing fiscal issues in our outpatient practices, we have downsized our General Internal Medicine faculty practice into a smaller space shared with Endocrinology. To replace a faculty member who left the Department, we hired an additional Chief Resident to provide inpatient care and resident precepting. We hired an additional full-time Endocrinologist (Dr Bennett) in July 2020 to expand our practice.

The Department has undergone a significant transition in administrative personnel. Donna Carpenter has retired after 25+ years as Administrative Assistant to the Chair. Her duties have been taken over by Kelly Reo. Melissa McCartan, the clerkship coordinator for both Internal Medicine and Neurology clerkship programs left in mid-March 2021. Her replacement, Taunia Robinson, joined us in April 2021.

Academically, the Department continues to be successful. A somewhat smaller cohort of Boonshoft School of Medicine students applied for residencies in Internal Medicine and Neurology in 2020. Our students' scores on their Step 2 examinations reflect the strong teaching in the clerkships. Our IM and Neurology residencies had high board pass rates and strong In-Training Examination scores. The residency match went well for both residencies.

The scholarly productivity of the Department has continued to grow, with over 200 resident presentations and publications this year. Several members of the Department published papers in peer-reviewed journals. Recognition of the faculty grew with presentations at major regional, national, and international meetings. Several residents had submissions at chapter meetings of the American College of Physicians and other specialty societies, with several residents earning awards for their work.

Dr. Bricker, Paul Hershberger, and their research team were awarded an NIH R21 award for their research project on motivational interviewing.

We had increased funded research activity within the Department through statewide cardiovascular disease and diabetes best practices collaboratives (MEDTAPP).

Coronavirus pandemic: The impact of the coronavirus pandemic on the Department of Medicine has been mixed. Hospital census was low throughout 2020, impacting our inpatient revenue.

The shift from face-to-face patient visits to telehealth has hurt outpatient revenue. Income from Infectious Diseases consultations has been significantly higher.

Drs. Evan Fisher and Matthew Koroscil developed a COVID-19 convalescent plasma protocol for the Dayton community that received national recognition. Our faculty members, Drs. Burdette, Colon, and Solomon are routinely quoted in the local newspapers and television news for their expertise in COVID-19.

The Department established a COVID-19 Vaccine Task Force which developed a very successful virtual symposium in January 2021. Speakers included the Governor of Ohio, Mayor of Dayton, Dean of BSOM, and clinical experts. The task force has developed a web presence on the BSOM webpage with regular updates on the COVID vaccines.

2021 marks my fourteenth year as Chair of the Department of Internal Medicine. I have been blessed to lead a group of superb clinician-educators. Together we have accomplished a great deal, but we still have much to do to improve the health and quality of life of our patients and our community.

Incorporating COVID-19 issues in tobacco control efforts.	To show evidence basis for educating medical students, primary care residents and faculty on effective methods of providing smoking cessation services using a multidisciplinary approach, including a pharmacist, and / or tobacco treatment specialist. Also to evaluate abstinence data once evidence based clinical services are put into place. The importance of placing tobacco use disorder in the context of general medical education cannot be underestimated, as we do not yet have that as a general education topic in medical education in most medical schools.

4 Teaching

Ajay Agarwal, MD

Medical Students:

- Third year Clerkship inpatient team
- TBL Participant
- Ambulatory/Subspecialty attending, including bed side teaching
- Regularly taught fourth year med students including bed side teaching
- Faculty sponsor for student research/poster
- Advisor for 3 students
- Participant in Healer's Art Interest Group Workshops for students
- Faculty sponsor for student research/poster

Residents/Fellows

- Regularly taught residents and fellows during their rotations

Sangeeta Agrawal, MD

Graduate Student Education:

- Faculty member of graduate school and Biomedical Sciences Ph.D. Program
- Supervised thesis of a Ph.D. student Reilly Clark (thesis is now complete)

Medical Students:

- Subspecialty attending for Third year Clerkship
- Faculty sponsor for two medical student research posters

Residents/Fellows:

- Cellular growth and neoplasia, July 2020, GI Fellows' Conference
- Esophagus Potpourri, August 2020, GI Fellows' Conference
- Complications of Endoscopy, September 2020, GI Fellows' Conference
- High Resolution Esophageal Manometry, October 2020, GI Fellows' Conference

Medical Students:

- 4th year medical students during morning report

Residents/Fellows:

- Consulting or attending general neurology-teaching interns in IM, psychiatry and neurology
- Attending neurology residents years 2-4

Steven Arkin, MD

Medical Students:

- Year 4 elective – Stroke service

Residents/Fellows:

- Morning report for Psychiatry residents, IM residents, and Neurology residents
- Teaching rounds on Neurology stroke service
- Resident Neurology noon conference on stroke service

Catherine Bacheller, MD

Residents/Fellows:

- Core faculty for Internal Medicine residency program

Katelyn Booher, MD

Medical Students:

- Year 4 ID elective
- Year 3 Clerkship subspecialty attending
- Support medical student research

Residents/Fellows:

- Faculty for ID Fellowship

- IM Resident ID rotation

Dean Bricker, MD

Medical Students:

- Ward attending/teaching – 3rd and 4th year medical students

Residents/Fellows:

- Ward attending/bedside teaching of IM residents
- Morning conference
- Attend/teach Noon Conferences, daily
- Facilitate small groups/team-based learning at resident forum weekly

Gregory Buchek, MD

Residents/Fellows:

- Supervised 11 residents (IM wards attending and ID consultant rotation)

Steven Burdette, MD

Medical Students:

- Host and Defense PI. Beta lactam antibiotics
- BCR PI: CNS infections and demyelination
- Bootcamp: BBP
- Staying alive: Pericardial Disease, Endocarditis and Myocarditis

Residents/Fellows:

- COVID for Residents noon conference
- Clostridium difficile noon conference
- LRTI noon conference
- ICU Lecture: COVID-19 treatment
- Neurology resident presentation: CA-UTI and COVID-19
- Fellows Chapter Review: HHV6 and BK virus
- ICU lecture – COVID
- Fellows Chapter Review: Anthrax and Sporothrix
- Fellows Chapter Review: Chlamydia
- Surgical residents: colon infections
- Fellows Chapter Review: Vascular and orthopedic infections

Kathryn Burtson, MD

Medical Students:

- WSU Research Coordinator
- Matched 9 medical students to local research projects

- Preceptor, Medical Services Unit
- Preceptor, Internal Medicine Clinic

Residents/Fellows:

- Graduate student education including thesis supervision
- Preceptor, Interservice PA Program
- Preceptor, UC Family Nurse Practitioner Program
- Curriculum development POCUS for Internal Medicine
- Flipped classroom in IM residency to train 170 IM residents 104 ABIM topics
- Chief Curriculum-created 12 monthly faculty development sessions for annual Chief Residents, APD's, PD, and Department Chair.

Esteban Cheng-Ching, MD

Residents/Fellows:

- Training Vascular Neurology Fellows

Evan Fisher, MD

Medical Students:

- Course on blood pressure, acid-base, electrolyte, and renal physiology

Residents/Fellows:

- Residency director of education in nephrology
- Nephrology clinical educator – Wright Patterson rotations
- Multiple lectures related to advanced blood pressure management adrenal physiology

Caelan Ford, MD

Medical Students:

- Preceptor for MS3 students on Neurology rotations at WPMC

Residents/Fellows:

- Preceptor for resident rotations in Sleep Medicine (USAF and WSU) at WPMC

Ankur Gupta, MD

Medical Students:

- Endocrine Course lecturer
- Associate Clerkship Director
- Endocrine rotation for medical students at VAMC and WSP endocrine clinic
- Advisor for medical students

Residents/Fellows:

- Noon conference lectures at VAMC
- Procedure workshop, Simulation Center at Dayton VAMC
- Advance Simulation Interprofessional Fellowship Program, VISN 10

Harrison Hawley, MD

- Infectious Disease Journal club monthly – fellows and faculty

Thomas Herchline, MD

Medical Students:

- Foundations – Global Health Foundations Co-Director
- Foundations – RBC Infections
- Foundations – HIV
- Foundations – Upper Respiratory Infections
- Foundations – Standard Precautions and Occupational Exposures
- Faculty Mentor for Student Research
 - Jacqueline Jepsen, Use of natural remedies in rural Jamaica
 - Kajanna McKenzie, Prevalence of diabetes mellitus and hypertension in St. Mary, Jamaica
 - Kaitlan Vossen, Age-related distribution of BMI and correlation with type 2 diabetes in Eastern Jamaica

- Attending for Fellow in Infectious Diseases Outpatient Clinic
- Attending for General Internal Medicine Service
- HIV Diagnosis and Treatment (Noon Conference)
- STD Diagnosis and Treatment (Morning Conference)
- Pneumonia Diagnosis and Treatment (ID Fellows Board Review)
- Extra-Pulmonary Tuberculosis (ID Fellows Board Review)
- MDR Tuberculosis (ID Fellows Board Review)

John Hughes, MD

Medical Students:

- Supervise third year medical students during their time in clinic

Residents/Fellows:

- Supervise the residents in clinic
- Helped develop a research project, ongoing supervision
- Formed a weekly research team in which produced an abstract that was submitted to JAMA
- Supervise noon lectures at the clinic

Bradley Jacobs, MD

Medical Students:

- Neuroscience Clerkship (NRL-891) attending physician and preceptor for 3rd and 4th year medical students
- Weekly Neurology case conference
- Supervise Neurology noon conference
- Supervise Journal Club
- Supervise and organize Morning Report

- Supervise monthly Morbidity and Mortality conference
- Attending Physician for inpatient Stroke service at MVH, teaching 3rd year medical students
- Attending Physician for inpatient General Neurology admit service at MVH, teaching 3rd year medical students
- Attending Physician for Neurology Resident Continuity Clinic and Stroke Clinic, teaching 3rd and 4th year medical students

Residents/Fellows:

- Neurology Residency Program Director
- Weekly Neurology case conference
- Supervise Neurology noon conferences
- Supervise Journal Club
- Supervise monthly Morbidity and Mortality conference
- Supervise and organize Morning Report
- Coordination of internal medicine and psychiatry residents, and geriatric fellow Neurology rotations
- Attending Physician for inpatient Stroke services at MVH, teaching Neurology, Internal Medicine, and Psychiatry residents
- Attending Physician for inpatient General Neurology admit service at MVH, teaching Neurology residents
- Attending Physician supervising Neurology residents in Continuity Clinic and Stroke Clinic

Devin Kelly, DO

Residents/Fellows:

- Clinical supervision of 26 residents per year
- Infectious Disease lectures several times weekly

Geetika Kumar, MD

Medical Students:

- Students on Hematology/Oncology rotation

Residents/Fellows

- Residents on Hematology/Oncology rotation
- Fellows in Hematology/Oncology Fellowship
- Topic reviews for residents and fellows

James Lamb, MD

Medical Students:

- Preceptor on MVH Inpatient Services
- Preceptor in the Ambulatory Clinic

- Third Year Elective Rotation in Telemedicine
- Team-based learning Facilitator for 3rd year medical students
- Pilot program – “Chairman’s Rounds”

Residents/Fellows:

- Residency Program Director
- Preceptor on Inpatient Service
- Preceptor in the Ambulatory Clinic

Ronald Markert, Ph.D.

Medical Students:

- Matching medical students with research mentors (faculty, fellows, residents)

Residents/Fellows:

- One-on-one planning meetings with IM and Neurology residents on scholarly activity requirement
- Journal club for IM residents and fellows: assistance with critical appraisal
- Academic appointment and promotion in a medical school: role of research for the clinical/teaching track – Internal Medicine Chief Residents: November 19, 2020
- New IM and Neurology resident orientation to scholarly activity: June 15, 2021

Luke McCoy, MD

Medical Students:

- Faculty Facilitator for select Endocrine portions of Beginning to End Course
- Facilitator for Wright Q for Staying Alive Course
- Internal Medicine Clerkship Director
- Facilitator for 3rd year clerkship bootcamp for finishing 2nd year students
- Faculty for Clinical Medicine Doctoring Course
- Inpatient Attending at MVH for 3rd year clerkship and 4th year sub-internship

Residents/Fellows:

- Inpatient Attending for MVH ward teams
- Participant in morning report sessions at MVH
- Preceptor at resident clinic
- Resident Advisor for 6 residents

Cassandra Milling, MD

Medical Students:

- Didactics during Neurology Clerkship
- Precepting in Neurology clinic

Residents/Fellows:

- Precepting in Neurology clinic

Basanti Mukerji, MD

Optometry Students:

- Clinic rotation to see shared diseases and our treatment regimens

Residents/Fellows:

- Resident Rheumatology rotations
- Inpatient Rheumatology teaching
- Resident Board Review in Rheumatology
- Outpatient Rheumatology clinic
- Special injection clinics where residents learn to do joint injections
- Musculoskeletal Ultrasound

Amith Parekh, MBBS

Residents/Fellows:

- Ward attending for Internal Medicine rotation

Barbara Phillips, MD

Medical Students:

- Helped teach the neuro exam
- Inpatient and Outpatient clinic – neurology and subspecialty epilepsy attending

Residents/Fellows:

- Inpatient – General Neurology attending
- Inpatient Epilepsy monitoring Unit attending – Clinical and EEG teaching

Nursing EEG Technologists:

- Teaching rounds through the year regarding epilepsy, inpatient care
- Review of EMU patients, follow up
- Review of technical issues, updates

John Shrader, MD

Medical Students:

- Outpatient teaching of MS 3 and MS 4 medical students
- Small-group preceptor for ICM1
- Associate Clerkship Director for MS 3 medical students at KMC – includes 3-4 teaching sessions per month

Residents/Fellows:

- Program Director for the Transitional Year Residency Program and the Director of Medical Education at KMC
- Outpatient teaching of both TY and IM residents

Cynthia Solomon, RPh

Residents/Fellows:

- Developed Online Primer for Primary Care Clinicians and Residents as part of fundamentals course in Evidence based Tobacco 4-6 hours of online education as part of Rx for Change program for residents and faculty

Glen Solomon, MD

Medical Students:

- Advisor/meet with all students applying to IM residencies
- Faculty sponsor for student research

Residents/Fellows:

- Teach residents at Morning Report, Forum, and Noon Conference
