Topic Description:

- How many uninsured Ohioans have obtained health coverage as a result of the Affordable Care Act?
- Why do some uninsured people enroll in coverage while others do not?
- How are people using the coverage they have gained as a result of the ACA?
- What does the future for health care coverage enrollment look like?

Speaker:

Hugh F. "Trey" Daly III, JD, is the Ohio State Director of Enroll America, a national, non-partisan, non-profit organization dedicated to maximizing the number of Americans who obtain quality, affordable health coverage as a result of the Affordable Care Act. Trey is a graduate of Xavier University in Cincinnati and the University of Kentucky College of Law in Lexington. Prior to joining Enroll America in 2013, Trey was an attorney with the Legal Aid Society of Greater Cincinnati from 1990 to 2013, focusing on health coverage and disability benefits. For his work on expanding access to health care, Trey was awarded the 2010 Robert Wood Johnson Foundation's Community Health Leader award.
