

The Affordable Care Act and its Impact on Ohio

Thursday, April 18, 2013

9:00-10:00 AM

Endeavor Room, Student Union, Wright State University

3640 Colonel Glenn Highway, Dayton, Ohio 45435

Amy Rohling McGee

President, Health Policy Institute of Ohio (HPIO)

Amy Rohling McGee has served as the president of the Health Policy Institute of Ohio, a nonpartisan, independent nonprofit organization that provides information and analysis to state policymakers, since 2010. She has extensive public and private sector experience in health policy, health system improvement and health care management.

HPIO President Amy Rohling McGee will discuss the facts, the issues, and the implications of the Affordable Care Act in Ohio. She will entertain questions after her presentation.

Target Audience: Health professionals, educators, students, interested community members

Registration: Free, however space is limited. Call Pam Mondini, (937) 258-5555 or email pam.mondini@wright.edu to reserve a seat. Persons needing ADA accommodation are invited to contact us with accommodation requests.

This event is co-presented by the Indigent Care Consortium of Montgomery County.
Free parking is available in Visitors Lot 2 by the Student Union.

Due to construction at the main entrance, please enter the Student Union from Lot 2 using the northern entrance across from Hamilton Hall.