

Clearing the Air: The Story behind Public Health – Dayton & Montgomery County's (PHDMC) Nicotine and Tobacco Policy

Thursday, October 23, 2014 3– 4 p.m.

Public Health – Dayton & Montgomery County Administrative Offices
Reibold Building, 2nd Floor Multipurpose Room
(exit to the right off the elevator and proceed down the hall)
117 South Main Street, Dayton OH 45422

Speakers:

Jim Gross, M.P.H., Montgomery County Health Commissioner

Bruce Barcelo, M.S., CTTS, Tobacco Prevention & Cessation Manager, PHDMC;
Co-Lead, Tobacco-Free Montgomery County; Chair Elect, Ohio Tobacco-Free Alliance

Topic Description:

Creating a nicotine/tobacco-free workplace has been largely addressed by many private sector employers throughout the country. The public sector has been reluctant to follow this trend. This Public Health Grand Rounds will provide an inside view of how Public Health – Dayton & Montgomery County developed and implemented one of the country's most comprehensive public policies for a nicotine/tobacco-free workplace. The speakers will:

- Present the rationale for PHDMC's progressive public employer policy
- Reveal the factors considered during policy development
- Discuss the policy, its implementation and collective impact

Target Audience:

Health professionals, educators, administrators and managers, interested community members.

Registration:

Free and open to the public.

Free parking is available to attendees who park in the Reibold Building Parking Garage, Main and Fifth Streets. The garage entrance is on Fifth Street. Parking vouchers will be provided to be used when exiting the garage.
